Rules and Regulation for Volunteers BAMBOO VOLUNTEER COMMUNITY

With reference to your application and subsequent interview you had with the management of BAMBOO VOLUNTEER COMMUNITY.

BAMBOO VOLUNTEER COMMUNITY supports students and professionals who want to study bamboo more extensively, by hosting them as interns and volunteers and providing access to its workshops, knowledge and network.

(Please note: During their stay, any Intern/ volunteer intending to join workshops can be offered a discount rate for the same)

Interns are students enrolled into a formal study program (usually colleges/universities), who need an internship to fulfill their curriculum.

Volunteers are asked to register and complete for minimum any one workshop of their field before they join for volunteering. There is a special discount of 50 % for those who is joining as an volunteer.

We ask those that want to intern with us – under the above definition – to disclose all criteria they need to fulfill (e.g. workload, project types, etc.) during the application process. This includes criteria Auroville Bamboo Centre (ABC) staff needs to fulfill (e.g. certain educational background – for example: B.Arch or M.A. design or MS engineering, PhD ...) to be a legitimate mentor to you during your internship, so that your institution will recognize the internship. Failure to inform us about these details may result in serious trouble for you with your institution, and we claim no responsibility in this case.

We ask for a minimum commitment of 8 weeks to your chosen team.

Internship/Volunteering Contribution:
Rs.9000/- per month

Including accommodation, breakfast, lunch and 2 times tea at the bamboo centre; basic Wi-Fi, basic laundry, tools & materials, technicians & faculties times, volunteer trainings, site visits and other projects, other amenities in the campus.

- Accommodation at Bamboo Centre:

The Bamboo Centre provides basic on-site bamboo cottages and dormitory with shared bathroom for intern/volunteer accommodation. Some of the cottages available are on twin sharing basis. (We will enclose pictures for our on-site accommodation cottages)

- Food at Bamboo Centre:

- Tea (twice a day at 10am and 3pm) – Monday through Saturday
- Included Basic Breakfast & Lunch – Monday through Saturday
- Not included:Dinner. There are many more restaurants and kitchens available in Auroville. A basic community kitchen area is available to do your own basic cooking as well

In above both options, we request full advance payment for the total tenure which you confirm with us. This amount is non- refundable

Please Note: The above contribution is fixed for everyone and your stay must be with us only not outside.

Savi Registration:

Every intern/volunteer is required to register with Savi - the Auroville Volunteer Support Group. This includes a basic Auroville contribution of Rs. 900/- per month. (This is separate from the monthly contribution at bamboo centre)

- We kindly ask you to inform ABC immediately if you become ill and if it is longer than 3 days, or you are have serious symptoms of any kind, we strongly suggest you see a healthcare provider of your choice (doctor, homeopath or healing practitioner). In case of a snake bite, please seek medical care at Jipmer Hospital (Pondicherry) immediately. ABC staff will assist you in this during work-hours, otherwise please ask our maintenance manager. We kindly ask you to bring a paper from your healthcare provider stating estimated recovery time, so we can reassign your duties to a co-worker in cases where we have to meet a schedule.
 - (Interns only) As an intern you are eligible for the same holiday-scheme as Auroville hired workers. This is a pre-defined schedule of 12 holidays per year (i.e. Indian holidays such as Pongal, Independence Day, Diwali, etc.) and another 12 holidays per year (1 per month) of your own selection. You will get all pre-defined holidays which fall into the time of your internship and 1 selectable holiday per month, which you may take individually or collectively, however we kindly ask you to not fake collective holidays within the first two months of your internship. If you work extra hours, these hours can be collected to extend your holidays. If you work fewer hours, you will need to make up these hours at a later stage, or use selectable holidays to cover these hours.
 - We have an established working culture at ABC. This may seem informal and non-binding to outsiders. However we do get our work done and we expect you to do the same. Please ask us directly if you are uncertain whether or not a specific task or responsibility was assigned to you and/or until when we expect progress.
 - If you are working with helpers or trainees under your supervision, you are responsible for their well-being and the outcome of this project. We expect you to organize work according to reasonable safety standards, to be resourceful and timely. Please ask for assistance as soon as you feel things are not working properly, out as intended, especially concerning safety or if you may not meet a schedule.
 - We try to minimize hierarchy, but some situations require direct communication. If given direct direction by any management or technical supervisors (in the workshops), we expect you to follow these, especially concerning safety. This may not always correlate to your own personal views and we understand and respect that. In such cases we ask you to contact us directly to seek clarity. In cases where safety is an issue, please seek clarity before proceeding. In cases where we have to meet a schedule, we ask you to proceed to our plan and seek clarity. Please also understand that some rules may change as we are also learning and try constantly to optimize operations.

- Intellectual Property (IP) Regulations: ABC may use all your work done during your period as volunteer/intern at ABC for any purpose, including commercial and promotional activities. ABC may alter your work to its needs. You may take some work pieces with prior permission if it is of importance to your institution (college/university, etc.). You may opt to release your work under a Creative Commons (CC-BY) license, which credits your work, but allows commercial use and alteration and derivatives, or an open-source type license. In this case we will publish digital files of your work on our website.
- On completion of your time as an intern/volunteer we request that you leave editable files of plans, texts and/or drawings on one of our computers/digital media and advise accordingly. If there is only handwritten information, this should be turned over to one of our staff members.
- All sensitive information you receive from ABC has to be deleted securely at completion of your internship/volunteer time from any of your personal digital media. Hand-drawings that contain such information should be handed over to one of our staff members.
